

John D. Seraydarian

Director

302.651.7798

302.498.7798 (fax)

seraydarian@rf.com

John Seraydarian is a transactional attorney with a practice focused on rendering advice on matters of Delaware law relating to alternative entities, including Delaware limited liability companies, limited partnerships, general partnerships, and other Delaware entities.

A director in the firm's Limited Liability Company and Partnership Advisory Group, John has extensive experience in rendering advice and legal opinions in connection with a wide variety of transactions involving Delaware alternative entities, including investment fund transactions, structured finance transactions, joint venture transactions, and cross-border transactions. His practice also includes advising clients with respect to mergers, acquisitions, conversions, dissolutions, and other structural changes involving Delaware alternative entities, as well as analyzing fiduciary duty and contractual interpretation issues.

John is active in the firm's community service program.

Publications

- "Proposed Amendments to Delaware's LLC and Partnership Acts," Harvard Law School Forum on Corporate Governance and Financial Regulation, June 3, 2019
- "Proposed Amendments to Delaware's LLC and LP Acts," Harvard Law School Forum on Corporate Governance and Financial Regulation, May 29, 2018
- "ESG Capital Partners II, LP v. Passport Special Opportunities Master Fund, LP - Delaware Court of Chancery Addresses Investment Fund Side Letter," April 2016

Education

- J.D., magna cum laude, University of Richmond School of Law, 2003
- B.S., Business Management, emphasis in finance, Brigham Young University, 2000

Admitted to Practice

- Delaware, 2003
- United States District Court, District of Delaware

Practices

- Limited Liability Company and Partnership Advisory