

John A. Basenfelder

Associate

302.651.7523

302.651.7701 (fax)

basenfelder@rf.com

John Basenfelder focuses his practice on transactional matters relating to Delaware limited liability companies, limited partnerships, and general partnerships. John renders advice and legal opinions in connection with investment funds, structured finance transactions, and other matters involving alternative entities with respect to issues of formation, operation, governance, enforceability, and dissolution.

John graduated in the top 5 percent of his class at Temple Law, where he served as a staff editor and the online managing editor for Temple Law Review. He received the Faculty Award for Academic Achievement, the Catherine Donahue Memorial Award in Trusts and Estates, the Nat N. Wolfsohn Memorial Award in Real Property, and the Class of 1977 Scholarship. John also interned for the Honorable Anthony J. Scirica, former chief judge of the Third Circuit, and the Honorable Juan R. Sánchez, judge for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Publications

- "What's the Use? Why a Commercial Use Requirement Is Not Necessary for Infringement Claims Under the Lanham Act," Temple Law Review Online, 2016

Education

- J.D., magna cum laude, Order of the Coif, Temple University School of Law, 2016
- B.A., Mathematics, Temple University, 2006

Admitted to Practice

- Delaware, 2016
- United States District Court, District of Delaware, 2017

Practices

- Limited Liability Company and Partnership Advisory

